

Front page "Culture" Piggy from Nieuw-Beijerland in American movie

Movie star in the making, potbellied piglet Pj, a creation of artist from Nieuw-Beijerland Charles Stephan

Dutch first sneak preview animated movie-piggy Pj

NIEUW-BEIJERLAND – Here it is, potbellied piglet Pj. With this publication in Het Kompas the leading character of the movie lives Dutch very first sneak preview. On the photo Pj is portrayed as a character design illustration and also as a clay model. Both are made by Charles Stephan. The artist / illustrator from Nieuw-Beijerland works on the American animated feature movie Operation Piggy Rescue, Inc. This animated film is a production of Green Beings Global Animation Studios from Oakland. Stephan is the heart behind the art and characters who will feature their leading roles in 'Operation Piggy Rescue, Inc'. In the production team Charles has the role of Character Art Director / Visual Development. The production team is looking forward with great tension to its premiere, late 2007, the Chinese year of the pig. Its not by chance Charles Stephan has gotten the honour to work on this unique movie project. Since a number of years he has enjoyed a reputation as 'pig illustrator / artist' and he's the founder and President of the 't Gorke foundation (information pet pigs)